The following programme was carried out. An essay on "Adversity" by Miss Lula B. Scott, which was highly appreciated. Oration on "Western Progress" by L. B. Poindexter. An essay on "The Pleasure of Hope" by Miss Alice Amis was very interesting. Oration, "Historic Richmond," by D. Sloan. Oration on "Labor and Capital," by H. L. Fitzhugh, was very instructive and commanded good attention. Oration, "Is There Ever to be An Age of the People," by G. W. Wells. Oration on "Political Heritage," by R. K. Long, which completed the program. Mr. R. K. Long captured two	medals—the Stayton medal for oratory, and the other for excellence in Greek; and Miss Georgia Gregory for excellence in history. The graduates are as follows: Miss Lula B. Scott, Gurdon, Ark. L. B. Poindexter, Surrounded Hill, Ark. Miss Alice Amis, Princeton, Ark. D. Sloan, Powhatan, Ark. H. L. Fitzhugh, Augusta, Ark. G. W. Wells, Powhatan, Ark. R. K. Long, Batesville, Ark. ROVER. <hr/> Delicate Children, Nursing Mothers, Overworked Men, and for all diseases where the tissues are wasting away from the inability to digest ordinary food, or from overwork of the brain or body, all such should take Scott's Emulsion of Pure Cod Liver Oil with Hypophosphites. "I used the Emulsion on a lady who was delicate, and threatened with bronchitis. It put her in such good health and flesh that I must say it is the best Emulsion I ever used."—L. P. WADDELL, M. D., Hugh's Mills, S. C. <hr/> DIAMOND DUST. Hot Springs and Pine Bluff teams have raised a terrible howl against Umpires Boggiano and Jordan; they want them released. Better let well enough alone. The game advertised for yesterday
